- The Confit Online System for 2020 Web Photochemistry Conference will end on September 12 (Sat).

How to discuss (figure is next page)

1. Find the poster presentation you want to view from the program.
2. View the abstract (1), e-poster (2), and comments to the presenter. If you press the comment button (3), the input screen will appear. Please type your comments in.
3. In the first line of the comment, write a heading, such as Question or Answer, to make it easier for others to understand what you say. No greeting or self-introduction is required.
4. You can type up to 1,000 characters per post. Press the post button (4). Make sure the comment is displayed correctly. Figures cannot be posted.
5. You can delete your own comment. However, if the discussion has started, please do not delete it because the flow of the discussion become ambiguous. Addition of another comment for correction or cancellation is recommended.
6. You can speak sequentially, but please be appropriate. Inappropriate remarks may be deleted by the secretariat without notice.
